Chips

With the last nickel of the rush fund stretched to the breaking point, sorority girls greeted the approach of bid day with a sigh of relief.

Freshmen also welcomed the cessation of a five-months' round of luncheons, teas and bridge parties calculated to undermine the constitution of the most seasoned dowager.

The awful silence of the week-end was broken early Monday in a storm of congratulations and kisses. The promiscuous osculation which took place in sorority rooms that morning was appalling. Some ninety pledges, each kissed by upward of twenty sorority girls! Figure it out for yourselves, boys.

Following informal pledging, the Greek captives, decked out in flowers and ribbons, were marshaled on the campus and lined up to be shot-photographically.

Each pledge's face shone with the deep conviction that she had selected and had been chosen by quite the most outstanding group on the campus; each sorority girl was equally radiant with that "you-see-we-got-her" look.

The George Washington University School Spirit Club appears to mean business. Signs admonishing everyone to "Get pep" and to "Show some spirit" dot the campus; large doses of the synthetic stuff are administered forcibly on Thursdays between the hours of eleven and eleven-fifty to all those who can be enticed into the gymnasium.

Well, perhaps the outer flame will beget the inner glow. Who knows?

Under the direction of Professor Crandall and his corps of architects, the gymnasium underwent a metamorphosis and was discovered Monday evening as the banquet hall of Mount Vernon.

Against this background, and to a house packed with Washington's elite, Mr. Allan-Allen demonstrated to his audience, and for the benefit of the George Washington University Hospital, that the proverbial Scotch penuriousness does not apply when it comes to the dispensing of song.

He was generous with encores, many of which were demanded by a charmed audience.

And by the way, we take back all the nasty things we've ever said about bagpipes. Mr. Angus Fraser and Mr. John Ross, also on the program of the "Birth Party at Mount Vernon," armed with these instruments of torture, produced something that was very like music.

Again the University lets loose upon a defenseless world its mid-winter crop of graduates. Yesterday afternoon in Memorial Continental Hall eighty young men and women received the reward of four years of study.

They will now scatter to all parts of the land to enter upon the serious business of life. Many of them may never be heard from; most of them will achieve some measure of success; a few will become leaders in public and professional life.

Each of them will reap the benefits of college training in an enlarged outlook and an intelligent grasp of affairs.

The fates are unkind. In the very act of eating humble pie over a misspelled word the printer ples the type, the proofreader fails to catch it, and another one is chalked up against us.

The first word in line one hundred and eleven of last week's column was intended for "deference." What a deference just a few letters make!

SPIELMAN TO LECTURE AT CHEMISTS' MEETING

The George Washington Chemical Society will meet in Room 39, Corcoran Hall, at 8 o'clock Wednesday, February 23. This is the first meeting this semester and it is hoped that the ranks of the old members will be augmented by those students of chemistry who entered G. W. at the mid-term. William P. Spielman, of the U. S. Patent Office, will talk on "Chemical Patents." Everyone interested in chemistry is urged to attend.

HISTORY CLUB HEARS ADDRESS

"The Political Situation in Canada" was the topic of the address given Tuesday, February 15, before the History Club.

LEMONITES DOWN TWO STRONG FOES IN WEEK'S GAMES

Colonials Vanquish American and William and Mary Quints in Fast Tilts

DEFEAT OF METHODISTS AVENGES PREVIOUS LOSS

Hatchetites Score Easy Win Over Indian Outfit; Only Two Games Left

By KINGSLAND PRENDER

Last week the G. W. Colonials rallied out of their slump to score decisive victories over the highly touted and truly powerful American U. and William and Mary quints, on Monday and Wednesday, respectively. The former lost, 23-12, on its own floor, while the Indians were scalped, 22-14, on the winners' court.

The local sport writers labeled the American game as a decided upset, but they probably forgot the great battle which resulted when these same teams hooked up earlier in the season. At that time the Springston-coached aggregation barely nosed out, 21-18.

After that game, Jimmy Lemon, Colonial mentor, experimented with his line-up, and by the time the teams met again only two of the original men started.

Jimmy Carey, versatile guard, remained in that position to bear the brunt of the attack, while Fred Wallace, the other guard, was switched to a forward post, so that he might utilize his scoring propensities.

"Red" Allhouse, all-round athlete, who displayed a brilliant passing and defensive game as well as the ability to toss them in, was given the other call at forward.

Perry is injured.

Allen "Pep" Perry, varsity end on the eleven, proved to be the need-punch when he was inserted as running guard. Al invariably led his mates in the scoring column and seemed to be in every play. He received a cut in the second American game which resulted in blood poisoning. On that account he was out of the Indian game, but he is now convalescing and will likely get into the games this week. Orr "Nebraska" Goodson, a newcomer, started at center in place of Harold Haun and managed to out-jump all of his rivals.

With this new combination the Colonials held their foe at sea most of the game. The Americans were held to seven counters in the first half and to five in the second. Jim Birthright, American center, was out, due to a sprained ankle, being replaced in the lineup by Leon Shloss, who was ruled out on personal near the end of the fray.

$300 GIVEN AS PRIZES FOR PUBLIC SPEAKING

Robert McKeever Gives Awards for Orations, Extemporaneous Speeches, Reading

Professor Farnham, of the Public Speaking Department, has recently announced that $300 in prizes will be given by Robert L. McKeever for those students who are registered for the morning or evening class in Public Speaking or for those participating in Debating who are able to do the best work in the following lines: Oration, extemporaneous speaking and reading.

Nine awards will be offered, giving three in each of the aforesaid divisions of the contest. These will be: $50 first prize, $35 second prize, $15 third prize. Final try outs for the elimination contest will be held on the Friday after Easter Sunday, according to Dr. Farnham.

It is expected that 50 persons will start on the first lap of the contest. This number will be weeded out through various preliminary try-outs to about 10 students, who are expected to participate in the contest itself.

Student Committee

Definite arrangements have not as yet been made concerning the time and place of the final eliminations. A student committee is in charge of the plans, however, and announcements for entrants will be made soon. The committee is in the charge of Harri-man Dorsey, who is chairman. Membership on the committee is made up of two representatives from the morning and evening classes. It includes Marion Campbell, Ray Harris, and Beveridge Miller.

The prizes are generously given, according to Dr. Farnham's statement, inasmuch as practically no other school has contributions equaling that given by Mr. McKeever. Students interested in the tryouts should see Mr. Dorsey as soon as possible.

Cosmo Hamilton Is Speaker In Chapel

Discusses His Revision of Pickwick Papers Which Had Premiere Here Recently

Cosmo Hamilton, eminent English author and playwright, addressed a large audience at Monday assembly, February 14. The subject of Mr. Hamilton's lecture was the "Building of a Play."

The speaker told of his experience in revising and casting Dickens' "Pickwick Papers" so that it would be suitable for production on the American stage and conform to modern dramatic requisites.

In rewriting this work Mr. Hamilton's object was to stress the simplicity and faith of the character of Pickwick. His second purpose was to reproduce the manners, speech and customs of Dickens' time.

PEP CLUB HOLDS SECOND MEETING

Hundred New Members Attend Session in Corcoran Hall

KAYSER PRAISES TEAMS

Club to Hold Informal Dances in Gym During Morning Free Hour

The thirteen charter members and almost a hundred applicants for membership were present at the second meeting of the School Spirit Club, held in Corcoran Hall on Thursday morning. They began with a lusty "Here's to the Buff, here's to the Blue," and yells and school songs interspersed the whole meeting.

Secretary Elmer L. Kayser made a short address in which he heartily endorsed everything the club is planning. "The trouble with G. W.," he said, "is that we don't know how good we are." He used as an example our excellent rifle teams, our glee clubs and our various athletic teams.

"Even George Washington lost battle after battle along the line," he said in speaking of our recent basketball victories, "but he won the last one." He agreed that dancing in the gym would be a very practical method for sticking together, and should really unify the school. He took his seat in the midst of a hearty locomotive in his honor, led by Ford Young.

Dances to be given in the gym at the activities period, 11:15 to 12 o'clock, were voted upon, and an orchestra composed of the Texter Brothers, Oscar Brand and Kenneth Mulford, volunteered for the first dance. Plans for student participation in assemblies will be brought up at the next meeting, in Corcoran Hall at 11 a. m. tomorrow. Professor Ragatz will be invited to speak at the meeting tomorrow.

DEAN VAN VLECK BACK; FACULTY MEMBERS ILL

Three of Law Staff Taken Sick During Past Week

Following the recent return of Dean Van Vleck after his recovery from a severe attack of grippe, three members of the law school faculty have been taken ill. Professors Edward Brandenburg and Charles S. Collier are both confined to their beds with grippe, while Prof. John Paul Earnest was operated on for appendicitis, last week at Emergency Hospital.

Mr. G. Kirby Munson will take over Prof. Earnest's law classes during the latter's convalescence. Mr. Munson is an honor graduate of the George Washington Law School, class of '24. He is at present a practicing attorney in this city.

FRESHMEN ENGINEERS GIVEN MERRY RECEPTION BY OLDER CLASSMATES

February Members of Freshman Engineering Class Put Through Process of Becoming Full-Fledged Members of Class of 1931

In order that those Freshmen, who entered the Engineering School at mid-year should not miss any of the college life which is their just due, a grand initiation was held recently in the mechanical drawing room, with older members of the Freshman engineering class administering the rites.

With shades drawn and all doors locked, the rookies were put through the process of becoming full-fledged members of the class of '31, after which the victims had the pleasure of searching for their shoes. This explains the reports heard around the campus lately that certain strange people have been seen cowering on

WARREN SPEAKER AT CONVOCATION; TALKS ON ADAMS

82 Diplomas Presented to Mid-Winter Graduates By President

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL LAUDS THIRD PRESIDENT

"John Adams and American Constitutions" is Subject of Warren Talk

The Honorable Charles Warren, former Assistant Attorney General of the United States, delivered the graduating address at the Midwinter Convocation held in Memorial Continental Hall on Washington's birthday, where 82 degrees were conferred by President Lewis.

Mr. Warren's address was entitled "John Adams and American Constitutions" and emphasized the fact that Adams was one of the most prominent men of his day and one of the greatest in American history. In speaking of the third President of the United States he said:

"The Adams whom I wish to call to your mind is not the figure which party foes and Hamiltonian historians have mis-portrayed as simply a vain, pompous, formal, irritable, envious fighter, but rather the man of whom Jefferson wrote that he was 'as disinterested as the Being who made him,' that 'his deep conceptions and undaunted firmness made him truly our bulwark in debate,' and that 'to him more than to any other man is the country indebted for our independence.'"

The speaker then went on to enumerate the accomplishments of John Adams. He stated that aside from the selection of John Marshall as Chief Justice of the United States, and also the first Constitutionalist, and it should never be forgotten that to him this country owes the form of its State Constitutions and of its Federal Constitution. Adams had made a profound study of the theory of government and "was the first man to explain clearly to the people that, if they were to institute a republican form of government, they must keep the three branches of government, the Executive, the Legislative and the Judiciary, separate and independent."

After explaining at length Adams' part in the framing of the Constitution, Ex-Attorney General Warren concluded by saying: "Above all liberties, 'the liberty to know, to utter and to argue freely according to conscience'—'eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man'—certainly that is the form of tyranny which must inspire the education which Adams and Jefferson said the Government must foster. Does American education mean that? And if not, how shall it be made to mean that? Those are problems which you young men and women must work out, if you would be worthy of the great Americans who founded your country."

President William Mather Lewis took Washington's birthday as the subject of his address. He pointed out the significance of the day to the graduates, and said that he regarded it as the time of the year to take stock of our spiritual and moral lives.

Degrees were conferred as follows: Bachelor of Arts: Ella April, Nina M. Booth, Lily Brunschwig (with distinction), Simplicio Gementiza Bucha, Loren Burritt, Jesse Sharpless Cheyney, George W. Clarvoe, Mary Josephine Carter Cole, Murray Marion Flack, Bernardo Barnachea Gapuz, Edith Mary Haydon, John George Ingold, Marcus Urban Lyons, Mabel Noel, Lottie Mildred Pierce, Robert Sklar (with distinction), Thomas Dale Stewart, Carl Robert Swinson, Nadeжда Tchomoneva, Mary Virginia Watkins.

University Chemists Nationally Honored

Munroe and Brattain Elected Officers of Washington Chapter of Chemical Body

At the Annual Meeting of the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Chemists, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. Charles E. Munroe, Honorary President; President, Paul H. Brattain; Vice President, James F. Crouch; Secretary, J. H. Taylor; Treasurer, H. L. Lourie.

Dr. Munroe was dean of the faculty of Graduate Studies at George Washington from 1893 to 1918, and is one of the foremost chemists of the day. Among numerous accomplishments to his credit is the invention of smokeless powder. Professor Brattain is now active in the chemical department at George Washington.

GIRL SHOTS WIN DOUBLE VICTORY

Undefeated Team Triumphs Over Powerful Penn State

CORNELL U. ALSO DOWNED

Vermont and Delaware Next on Fair Sharpshooters' Telegraphic List

George Washington co-eds downed Penn State College with a score of 499 to 495 on Saturday, February 19. This was in reality the greatest victory of the year, since Penn State was the only team before which the Buff and Blue girls bowed last season.

The scores a year ago were but one point apart, while Saturday a four-point lead gave George Washington an easy victory. Several very good targets were shot, but no particular girl starred. The records were as follows: Taylor, 100; Shoemaker, 100; Prentiss, 100; Clark, 100; Cuvillier, 99; Folsom, 99; Huntzberger, 99; Parsons, 99; Jamison, 98; and Valden, 98.

The same week in a match against Cornell University the girls totaled a perfect score of 500. The results of Cornell's shoot shows a total of 483, giving the Colonials a wide margin for victory. The scores of the second match were as follows: Cuvillier, 100; Shoemaker, 100; Valden, 100; Parsons, 100; Huntzberger, 99; Taylor, 99; Prentiss, 99; McLean, 99; and Clark, 98.

The team does not shoot again until March 5, when they meet the University of Vermont and the University of Delaware in telegraphic matches.

WASHINGTON IS LAUDED IN PREXY'S LECTURE

Columbia Historical Clubs Hears First President Defended at Cosmos Club

"No man has suffered more at the hands of alleged historians than George Washington," was President Lewis' defense of the first Hatchette before the Columbia Historical Society at the Cosmos Club last Wednesday. "A small man cannot write a great biography," he said, "for he can see but one side of a many-sided man, such as was Washington." Indeed, in the process of humanizing Washington, in contrast to the cold pictures drawn by historians of an early era, many modern historians have not only "perfected an unfreezing process," but have gone so far that Washington is in "danger of being roasted."

Speaking of Washington as a "many-sided" man, Dr. Lewis discussed his qualifications as soldier, agriculturist, statesman and man of affairs, and showed how his vision is responsible largely for the present plan of this city, which he characterized as "the most beautiful capital city in the world."

Washington the statesman, he went on, would have been the sort to regard the sanctity of the eighteenth amendment, had it been a part of the Constitution at that time. Washington knew how to think, he added, and declared that the difference between what to think and how to think is the difference between system and efficiency.

DR. R. F. BORDEN ILL

Dr. R. F. Borden, assistant professor of mathematics, has been obliged to give up his classes for the remainder of the semester on account of ill health. William J. Berry, last year a physicist at the Bureau of Standards and formerly an instructor of mathematics at the University of Colorado, will be in charge of the day classes.

TROUBADOUR TRY-OUTS

Cast try-outs for those who did not try out last week will be held by the Troubadours in Room 1, Corcoran Hall, tonight at 8 o'clock.

GYM MADE MOUNT VERNON HALL FOR HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Banquet Room of First President's Estate is Represented

PLANS DRAWN UP BY BOARD OF MANAGERS

Allan-Allen Entertains with Scotch Songs—Architects in Charge of Decorations

The George Washington University gymnasium was transformed into the Banquet Hall at Mount Vernon when the Board of Lady Managers of George Washington Hospital, under the direction of Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, gave their annual entertainment on Tuesday, February 22, at 8 o'clock, before an audience consisting of many prominent Government officials.

Baldwin Allan-Allen, the famous baritone, entertained with Scottish love songs, and Angus Fraser and John Ross, musicians from New York, offered selections on the bagpipe, examples of the Sword Dance, the Highland Fling, the Scottish Reel and songs of history. The music furnished the appropriate atmosphere for the gymnasium as transformed into the banquet hall at Mount Vernon gave a background for the representation of General and Mrs. Washington entertaining Scottish friends from Alexandria.

Architects Aid

The replica of the Banquet Hall at Mount Vernon was constructed under the supervision of Professor Crandall, of the Architectural School, and every detail of the original was carried out with the utmost exactness. The gymnasium ceiling and walls were draped in white muslin, festooned in smilax, and lighted with George and Martha lanterns. The decorating and designing have been done by George Riggs, George Beatty and Roger Barnes, students in architecture.

This entertainment will aid in providing George Washington University Hospital with necessary surgical beds and dispensary equipment. It pointed out to all present the significance of the name of the University, and the real meaning of George Washington's birthday, whose one hundred and ninety-fifth birthday is commemorated.

This is the third of this kind of entertainment that has been presented by the Board. The first represented the grounds at Mount Vernon and was considered an excellent duplication of the gardens of the First President's estate. Last year's entertainment was given by Carmela Ponsello, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, with a replica of the Music Room at Mount Vernon as her background.

Razz Berry Edition Is Put On Sale By P. D. E.

"Hot" Edition of Publication Enjoys Wide Circulation; Article By Leonard Hall

The "Hot" Edition of the Razz Berry, annual satirical publication of the local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national collegiate honorary journalistic fraternity, was put on sale at the Mid-Winter Convocation and at the Interfraternity tea dance yesterday afternoon. A large sale was enjoyed by the publication, the sales of which were handled by the pledges of the fraternity.

An article by Leonard Hall, dramatic critic of the Washington Daily News and an honorary member of the local chapter, is a feature of the edition. It is entitled "Dramatics at the 'You'" and deals with drama here some years ago when the author was connected with the University as a dramatic director.

Flaring front page stories of college happenings, graced the red paper used as stock. An "Extra" was put on sale after the regular edition had been sold. This "Extra" contained additional stories in the same vein as the regular edition. A few remaining copies of both editions are on sale at the University Hatchet office.

ENGINEERS TO HEAR W. P. MacCRACKEN, JR.

Hon. William P. MacCracken, Jr., Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Aeronautics, will speak at a meeting of the Engineering Society to be held on Friday, February 25, at 8:15 in Corcoran Hall 1. His subject will be "The Development of Commercial Aeronautics." All members of the society are urged to be present.

HONESTY AND THE LIBRARY

A deplorable situation which has been recently discovered in the general Library and the English Seminary Library brings us face to face with the realization that honesty is not practiced as much as it is preached. During rush periods and at examination times reserve books are charged out and kept out until the borrower has finished with them. This cripples the work of a whole class, for if the book is off the shelf for an excessive time others must delay their work to accommodate this. Far worse, this borrowing has led to the complete disappearance of some valuable reference material from the Libraries.

Sometimes these volumes come back. Oftener they do not. If we stop to ask ourselves the question of whether this is making for advancement of the school itself, only one answer is evident: The Library can never grow and become the reference background of the large urban University that G. W. is rapidly becoming, if the volumes are treated in this way. Naturally, the question of personal honor might enter in to some slight extent. That, however, is evidently quite supplementary.

NON-NEOPHYTES

An extended list of pledges to a group of Greek letter sororities appears in this issue. The length would indicate that practically every Freshman woman on the campus had suddenly become affiliated with one of these organizations. The whole system is entirely too over-emphasized. We must take off our hats to that much larger percentage of fair Frosh who are willing to stand "on their own" and not let an organization hold them up and push them forward. How much stronger are those people who are able to carry on their school work, their college activities and athletics with only their own individualities to lead them! So it is that, in spite of the number of fledgling Greeks who were showered with congratulations and were sporting corsages of various samples of floristry at the beginning of the week, we also must congratulate those who are able to see over the top of the organizations to realize that even greater accomplishments can be made without this backing.

To both junior and senior Greeks a clipping from a local paper is very apropos: "Shall I ask the brave soldier, who fights by my side in the cause of mankind, if our creeds agree? Shall I give up the friend I have valued and tried, if he kneel not before the same altar with me?"

GEORGE WASHINGTON

We who live so close to the home of him who did so much in the establishment of our country, and who attend the University which bears his name, often overlook the fact that a nation's shrine lies at our very door. Mount Vernon, Pohick Church, at Pohick, the old Masonic lodgeroom, the Carlyle House, and Christ Church, in Alexandria, are visited yearly by tens of thousands of pilgrims from all parts of the world. Yet these places so closely connected with George Washington and the founding of our country are overlooked by many of us who live so near to them. Yesterday the wheels of industry ceased, a national holiday was observed, and the people throughout this land paid homage to the memory of Washington. Should not we, with the tomb of him who gives us our name so close to us, visit this shrine more often?

FROM the mighty halabalo of final sorority parties and the excitement of bid day, the freshmen who were so much feted last week are now settling into meek little goats. George Washington's birthday with its usual festivities has also come and gone.

The Interfraternity tea dance held in Corcoran Hall yesterday proved quite a success. We surmise that the affair would not have been displeasing to the Patron Saint himself had he been there.

Gamma Beta Pi entertained several rushees and a few members of Kappa Gamma fraternity at their final luncheon at the Congressional Country Club last Thursday.

The Sigma Nu's gave a George Washington's birthday dance at the chapter house Monday night. The party lasted until far into the morning, in view of the fact that no one had to go to school the next day.

The Kappa Deltas gave a white rose supper last Thursday. Miss Iva Lee Newell played several violin selections and Elizabeth Bell sang.

Sigma Kappa sorority entertained at an early breakfast in the rooms Friday morning. The affair was given in honor of several rushees and their mothers.

Helen Perriam and Betsy Booth who attended George Washington last year motored down from their homes in New York a week ago last Tuesday. They made the trip in Helen's new Buick which she calls "Napoleon." During their stay here they have been the guests of their Omega sisters and friends.

Sigma Chi celebrated its new initiates with a house dance on Friday, February 18. The ex-neophytes enjoyed an orgy of reckless cutting on the brother's "drags."

Pi Beta Phi entertained several rushees at their final luncheon Friday. Narcissus and pink roses were predominant decorations.

Kappa Alpha fraternity announces the pledging of Manning Dyer and Edward MacPherson.

Alpha Delta closed its rushing season with a formal dance at the Hotel Washington on Tuesday night, February 15. Cossages made unique favors.

Helen Drew spent last week-end at Manassas, Virginia, where she was entertained by some of her friends from Swabery.

Irma Bauls gave a bridge shower for Helen Hall, who is soon to be married to Arthur Logan, at her home on Kilgore road last week. Several Chi Os and other George Washington people attended.

The Phi Sigs gave a peppy dance at the chapter house last night.

The Bunny Hole was the scene of another one of the popular rush breakfasts Friday morning. The hostesses were the Phi Mu's.

Chi Omega fraternity held their final rush party at Tabard Inn Friday afternoon. The affair took the form of a formal tea.

Delta Zeta held its final party at the Mayflower Hotel last Thursday night.

Pi Beta Phi fraternity announces the initiation of Phoebe Moorhead, Ellen Buell, Marjorie Bowman, Florence Smith, Lillian Marceron, and Elizabeth Miles.

Something unique in the way of a valentine supper was given by Sigma Kappa at the home of Ruth Mayberry a week ago, last Sunday night.

Alpha Sigma Theta gave a formal dinner at the Hotel Hamilton last week. Several rushees and one guest, Mrs. Steel, who was the hostess for the evening, were present.

Phi Mu gave a formal bridge supper at the Carlton Hotel a week ago Monday night.

The Delta Zeta's gave a rush luncheon at Pierres, a week ago last Saturday.

One of the most original parties given this year was a vaudeville staged in the Alpha Delta Theta rooms Tuesday, February 9. The show consisted of several humorous skits given by the members for the rushees.

The Sigma Kappas gave a rush banquet at the Arlington Hotel last Wednesday night. Miss Rosemary Arnold presided as toastmistress.

Sigma Chi announces the formal initiation of the following men on Sunday, February 13th: Porter Strother, Hugh Jeffery Ward, John Cunningham, John Ewing Organ, Bartley Gordon, Joseph Wiley Baylor.

Phi Alpha fraternity initiated five men on Sunday, February 13th. The initiates were Jack Aronoff, Charles Flax, Milton Mermelstein, Sidney Sachs and Irving J. Faskow. On the evening of the initiation a banquet was held in honor of the new men, at Harvey's. The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. David D. Davis, one of the founders of Phi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. Pauline Babb Burd was hostess at a tea Sunday afternoon given in honor of Virginia Michell, who recently won the Kappa Delta scholarship cup. All members of Alpha Delta Theta were present.

The Tau Club announces the addition of Michael H. Greenberg and Harold P. Auslander to its roster of members.

Alpha Sigma Theta gave a surprise birthday party in honor of Margaret Wheeler last week. Several rushees were present.

Dean Rose held her semi-monthly tea for all Columbian women last Wednesday in the Women's Building. Yellow Jonquils and bright candles gave the appearance of spring.

George Smith, John Holland, and Byron Snow are living at the Sig house now, having transferred their allegiance to G. W. from the University of California, Colorado College and the University of Michigan, respectively.

Betty Reybold, Marjorie Simmons, Sarah Reed, Caroline Willcox, Verna Parsons, and Mary Elizabeth Brigham were seen at the Army-Navy reception at the White House, Thursday, February 17.

Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity announces the pledging of Donald Dudley, James B. Suter, and Stafford Clayton.

FINAL ANNUAL COPY DATE TO BE MARCH 1

Speed Urged If Material Is To Be Included In Cherry Tree

In order to accommodate the sorority pledges, the final date for having pictures taken for the Cherry Tree is being held open until March 1.

Material for the annual is now being sent in to the printer. Any organization not having submitted its data to the editors should do so at once, as the composition of the Cherry Tree is well under way and there is a chance of late material being overlooked.

Junior Pictures

Pictures of the Juniors are being arranged in much the same order as fraternity pictures. The Seniors, however, are having a list of their affiliations, activities, and honors printed along with their pictures. These activity blanks should be filled out immediately, certified, and turned in to the Cherry Tree staff. They may be found in the Registrar's office.

Camel is the understanding smoke

CAMEL is always the friendly cigarette. In days of tense achievement, in moments of joy and gaiety, a lighted Camel will spur you to the stars with its cool, crisp fire. Camels understand your every mood.

A purchase of Camels brings you the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Blended by skilful experts into the world's most popular smoke, and the best.

Unfathomed quality is the distinguishing mark of Camel.

No matter what the price you pay, you can buy no better cigarettes than Camels. Smoke them as frequently as you please. You will never be left with a cigarette after-taste; Camels aren't made that way. That is why experienced smokers everywhere demand them. That is why millions thrill to three short words: "Have a Camel!"

G. W. GIRLS' CAGE TEAM LOSES TO SWARTHMORE

Team to Go to Richmond to Meet
West Hampton Next Week

The Colonial sextette went down to defeat at the hands of the Swarthmore cage girls to the score of 27-14 in a hard-fought game on the local floor last Friday night. The Hatchetets were well swamped in the final quarter, with the Pennsylvania six running up a total of 14 and holding the Buff and Blue girls scoreless.

The G. W. girls took it calmly, however, and staged a big rally for their side in the second half, holding the Swarthmore girls scoreless and chalking up 10 points for themselves. The tally at the half was 17 to 10, with the team on its toes to jump into the lead.

Hard Struggle

When the whistle blew for the third quarter the locals were set to leave the opposing sextet behind. The Swarthmore girls' big lead in the first quarter was too much for the Colonialetts, however, and they were never able to tie their opponents' high mark. The game was a hard one to the end, with the fair Buff-and-Blues playing in their best form until the final whistle sounded.

The star of the locals was Winnie Faunce, guard and captain, who constantly intercepted passes sent by the fast Swarthmore forwards. Frances Walton, the Pennsylvania's side center, played the stellar game for the opponents. Leah Cole, fast local "side," was knocked out toward the end of the game, but managed to go on to the finish.

This week's tilt, to be played on Saturday, is in Richmond, when the G. W. girls will meet West Hampton on the enemy's floor. The following game will be with Gallaudet, on March 4, and will be played in the local gym.

TRACK NOTICE

All persons interested in track are urged to meet Manager Milton L. Dennis on the evening of March 2, in Corcoran Hall, 17, at 8 o'clock.

DIONYSIANS ANNOUNCE SPRING FESTIVAL PLAY

Racine's "Britannicus" to be Club's Entrant in Annual Contest for Loving Cup

Britannicus, a play by Jean Racine, French poet-dramatist of the seventeenth century, is to be the loving cup magnet of the Dionysians in the dramatic club contest this April.

Already the members have imported a first version from England and have translated and cut the lines, until it is in well-nigh workable form.

Racine-like, the interest dwells upon the psychological development of a character Nero, of ancient Rome, in this instance. It is around the court of this emperor and his favorite wife, Agrippina, that the tale centers its action and scenes.

For these Kermit Girdner is perfecting new lighting effects, while others are seeking originality and art in costumes and stage settings.

Heretofore the company has needed outside help in the working out of scenic problems, but this year a mechanical department is to devote its entire time to this phase.

Anyone who has an artistic eye, can drive a nail deftly, or is interested in any sort of front or back stage performing, has been asked to communicate with Kermit Girdner, president.

W. MARYLAND IS NEXT COURT FOE

Lemonites to Meet Quint From Westminster in Gym
Friday Night

VISITORS LOOM STRONG

Same Lineup To Start for G. W.; Win Will Give Team An Even Break

Friday night the Colonial tossers will be host to the Western Maryland quint in the Gymnasium, with hostilities getting under way at 8 p. m. Determined to make it three victories in a row, the Buff and Blue will have a hard task on their hands to take the measure of the fast-travelling Green Terrors from Westminster, Md.

This will be the second time this season that the Marylanders have invaded the Capital. The rangy floor-men from the north defeated Gallaudet on February 5 by a 39-29 count in a game which was featured by the ability of the Western Maryland quint to penetrate the stiff defense of the Gallaudet team. This offensive game was accomplished mainly by clever teamwork which placed a man on the four line while another slipped into the corner ready for a short pass from his mates. "Mose" Machomer starred in this game by accounting for nine field goals and a trio of foul shots.

Machomer is Star

George Washington did not fare so well against the Gallaudet five in the game played a week or so after the opening of the season, when the Kendall Greeners defeated the Buff and Blue in a close game, 37-33. The Colonials, however, have improved greatly since that contest, and comparative scores will mean little in Friday's game.

Machomer, in pivot position for the visitors, is the star for the Marylanders, both on offense and defense. The forward positions are ably filled by Broll and Sullivan, who have displayed some brilliant passing and dribbling this year. A strong guarding game is largely due to the snappy playing of Weigle and Van Buren, who share the guard positions.

It is quite certain that Coach Lemon will not change his winning line-up of the last two games, which comprises Wallace and Allshouse at forward, Orr Goodson at center, with Perry and Carey at guard. The Colonials have a strong reserve list, with Haun, Sapp, and Bland to choose from in case substitutes are needed.

A victory in this game will give the local quint an even break for the season, the Buff and Blue having won seven out of thirteen games thus far.

LEMONITES DOWN TWO STRONG FOES IN WEEK

The two teams struggled determinedly for four minutes before Al Perry received a short pass from Allshouse and sent the sphere swishing through the cords, putting the Colonials to the front. Wallace followed with another two-pointer.

After eight minutes of play the Americans finally scored by virtue of a long field goal from Shloss. For the remainder of the period Perry and Wallace gathered six points while Bill Banta tossed in two scrimmage baskets and Bruce Kessler added a free toss for the Americans, making the count 10-7, with the Colonials still leading at the half.

In the second half the Lemonites ran off with the old basketball game with Wallace and Perry again leading the assault. Sapp, Carey and Goodson each contributed two points to the cause. The result was an overwhelming defeat for the mighty Americans and a "sweet" victory for the hard-working Hatchetets. Up to that game the losers had won thirteen out of fourteen games, having fallen before the Cardinals of Brookland.

Defeat Virginians

The William and Mary combination came up to Washington with a better than fair average, due to its victories over the strong southern teams, including Lynchburg, which had previously toppled the Colonials. The locals, inspired by their recent victory, fell upon the Indians for an easy win.

Due to the illness of Al Perry, star guard of the Lemonites, Barrow, a scrappy and accurate player, was sent to guard. He acquitted himself creditably.

Eashie Snyder, forward, was the only visitor who could consistently locate the iron hoop. It was practically impossible to penetrate the defense of the locals so the losers resorted to long shots which generally fell short.

Jimmy Carey was easily the star for the victors, accounting for eight points. "Neb" Goodson, at center, gathered six counters and played a strong defensive game. Barrow with a basket and two gratis shots, and Wallace and Sapp with a field goal apiece completed the scoring for the Axemen.

Henry Sapp started the fireworks with a neat goal from side court. Carey did likewise. Then Snyder got loose for a long one. The battle was on, but it was one-sided, for the Lemonites ran up twelve points while the Indians were accumulating but seven. The winners continued their onslaught in the new period to swamp the Southerners, 22-14.

The Colonials are near the end of their schedule having only two games left, with Western Maryland and Catholic University. The boys are at the top of their game and with the breaks falling their way they should come off with at least one more victory.

WESTERN DOWNS FRESHMAN QUINT

Speedy Court Contest Goes to Red and White Team by 37-19 Count

SECOND HALF IS CLOSE

Yearlings' Record Now Shows Seven
Wins, Five Defeats and One
Disputed Game

The snappy Western High School quint scored a victory against the local Freshman five last Wednesday by a 37-19 count, in a game featured by the brilliant passing game of the Westerners. Played as a preliminary to the William and Mary varsity contest, this game was productive of a more speedy brand of basketball than the final score would indicate.

Garber broke the ice in the first period by scoring a double-decker two minutes after the opening whistle, but the Frosh soon tied things up again when Breslow, at guard, scored two foul shots. A long shot by Walker from the 25-foot mark, put Western in the van, after which they were never headed. The half ended with the visitors on the long end of a 29-12 count.

The Freshmen defense tightened in the second half, and a close battle resulted, with the Westerners scoring eight points to seven for the Frosh.

Freshmen Defense Strong

An element of interest was added to the game in the fourth quarter, when Ivan Stehman, stocky halfback of the football team, went in as substitute for Irving Breslow. Although Stehman did not score for the Frosh, his clever passing was vigorously applauded by the spectators.

The Yearling team put up a strong defensive game, with Breslow and Gray stopping several Western advances. Ford Young led the scoring for the Frosh, with three field goals and one free shot. Schaffert and McQueen played a consistently good passing game.

Each of the players on the Western first team scored at least one counter, with Coombs at the head of the list as a result of five double-deckers and a trio of charity shots.

This defeat brings the Freshman quint's record to seven victories, five defeats and one disputed game out of the thirteen games played this season.

SPRING PRODUCTION IS SELECTED BY PLAYERS

"The Beggar on Horseback" to be Presented March 25; Cast of Thirty

"The Beggar On Horseback," by Conley and Kaufman, has been selected as the spring presentation of the Players. The date has been set for March 25.

This play has been produced successfully both on the stage and screen, but this attempt marks the first of its kind on the part of any college dramatic society.

The selection is a play which will require much elaborate preparation as it depends largely on its fantastic and impressionistic background for its popularity.

The cast will number about thirty and calls for a majority of male parts. Its size will provide a splendid opportunity for a great many of the Players to participate.

Miss Brown in Charge

Miss Brown is in charge of the casting, and Morris Larson, president of the organization, will handle the personnel, as selected by Miss Brown.

Pern Henninger, who was in a great measure responsible for the success of the "Whole Town's Talking," will direct the technical side, including the lighting and scenic effects.

Thursday evening, February 17, the first try outs for parts in the "Beggar on Horseback," to be given by the Players on March 25, were held in the basement theater of Stockton Hall.

Miss Brown, dramatic coach, conducted the try outs, and some very promising material was discovered. However, this is but the first of a series of try outs to be held in the near future. These will be announced from time to time and all interested are urged to attend.

NEW COURSE INSTALLED AT G. W. MEDICAL SCHOOL

A new course in Clinical Microscopy was begun at the George Washington University Medical School the first of February. It is under the professorship of Doctor O. B. Hunter, Professor of Bacteriology and Pathology, with an enrollment of about twenty-five students. This is the largest number of students ever registered in the course.

NATIONAL SHOWS "BEAU GESTE" FOR SECOND WEEK

The picturization of Percival Wrenn's popular novel, "Beau Geste," is now running for its second week at the National. After a seven-month stay at the Criterion Theatre in New York the provinces are being permitted to view what is said to be one of the most brilliant and thrilling films ever screened.

The cast includes all the most luminous stars in the fan's galaxy. Ronald Colman, Noah Beery, Nell Hamilton, Ralph Forbes, William Powell, Alice Joyce, Mary Brian, Norman Trevor, and Victor McLaglen have the more important roles, not to mention the French Foreign Legion. No less than a thousand thrills are promised to the public, so take your shock absorbers.

BRADLEY WILL HEAD SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

Named Acting Dean as Pharmacy Department is Moved to Campus

Upon the death of Dean Kalusowski, Dr. Louis M. Bradley was appointed Acting Dean of Pharmacy. Dr. Bradley is a graduate of the College of Pharmacology of the George Washington University, and has for several years been a member of the Examining Board of Pharmacists of the District.

W. Hall Briggs received the appointment of Instructor of Pharmacy, transferred to Corcoran Hall.

The entire school of pharmacy has been transferred to Corcoran Hall. The laboratory work is being carried on in the chemistry laboratories, as this arrangement is entirely satisfactory to both departments. There has been no change other than these in the College of Pharmacy, the courses themselves remaining exactly the same.

The old building where the classes in Pharmacy were held for so many years is being sold, to aid in the creation of our "Great George Washington."

FOUR BATTLES BOOKED BY FROSH COURT QUINT

Team to Make Three Trips This Week; One Home Game Friday Night

Four games will be played by the Freshman basketball team this week, of which three will be played in foreign gymnasiums. The one home game will be played in the Gym on Friday night as a preliminary to the Western Maryland game, when the St. Albans quint will be engaged.

On Monday the team journeyed to Alexandria for a return game with the Alexandria High School quint. In their previous meeting the Frosh vanquished the Virginians by a 30-14 count, after the latter had established a record of ten straight victories.

This afternoon the young Colonials will play the Georgetown Prep team on the latter's court. The Georgetown quint has made a creditable showing for itself this season and a good game should result.

The Frosh will take another trip on Saturday afternoon, when they engage the Leonardtown High School team. The Marylanders have defeated several strong teams this season and the game in the Leonardtown gym should be a thriller.

These games will practically decide whether the Freshman quint ends the season with a balance in the victory or defeat column. An even break in the four contests will give them a margin of two victories in the games played thus far.

Collegiate pipes aren't all 'non campus mentis'

APPEARANCES may be against the modern college pipe; he may look 'superfish'... he may sound a bit blotto, slinging his six or seven slanguages, including the Scandinavian... But when he talks 'TOBACCO' lend him your ears. For that's one subject he's studied and knows from the ground up!

Listen to his learned lingo and you'll see why the one perfect pipe tobacco is grand old Granger Rough Cut. It's all spicy old Burley, the choicest pipe tobacco known to man... all mellowed Wellman's way... and cut, especially for pipes, in large slow-burning, cool-smoking flakes. It's breaking all collegiate records for pipe-popularity.

Of course, some collegiate pipes, who judge everything on 'price', can't afford to smoke Granger... it's too INEXPENSIVE. But notice any pipe that is sufficiently sure of himself to be himself, always; and notice also his Granger.

INTER-GREEK PIN MEN TIE LEAGUES

Two Bowling Series Find
Top Honors Well
Contested

FIRST WEEK OF PLAY EVEN

Results Show S. P. E., P. S. K. and Sigma Nu Opponents of S. A. E. and Kappa Sigma

By HERBERT E. ANGEL

The net results of the first week of play in the Inter-Fraternity Bowling series are tied for first honors in each league, with three teams knotted for the lead in League 1 and two sharing the top-notch position in League 2.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Sigma Nu, with one match apiece to their credit, and no defeats registered against them, are the participants in the triple tie in League
1. Two victorious matches and no defeats for each were necessary to give the lead in League 2 to Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Kappa Sigma.

In League 1, the Sigma Nu pin spill-ers downed Kappa Alpha in two straight games Tuesday night, 464-414 and 443-435. The game scheduled between Theta Upsilon Omega and Phi Sigma Kappa for the same evening was postponed until tonight. The Kappa Alphas were again the losers on Thursday evening, when T. U. O. won the first game of their match 501-412, dropped the second 447-456, and tied the deciding game at 433 all. On the roll-off, Henry Foster of T. U. O. contributed a spare and sewed up the game for the Q-Streeters. Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon postponed their tilt for the same evening and will meet tomorrow night instead.

Kappa Alpha Downed

Friday night the unfortunate Kappa Alphas were again turned back in two straight games by the maple toppers from Phi Sigma Kappa by 528-448 and 484-460 counts. In the first game Jim Flack of Phi Sigma Kappa turned in a 159 score, which was the highest total in either league for the week.
The S. P. E.'s rolled better than 500 in both games to vanquish the Theta Ups on Saturday night by 519-480 and 548-465 scores. Osmond, of Sigma Phi Epsilon, was high man of the second game of the match, with a total of 139.

Acacia started the festivities in League 2 on Tuesday night, when it wrested a hard-fought match from Theta Delta Chi. The Theta Deltas won the first tilt 489-460, only to have Acacia come back and take the next two 481-441 and 489-476. Sullivan, of T. D. C., rolled 115 for the high game of the evening. Kappa Sig handed Sigma Chi a defeat in two consecutive games, 512-434 and 501-486.

Thursday night Sigma Chi turned back the Theta Deltas in straight games, 519-439 and 513-478. S. A. E.
did the same to Acacia, with one game of 518 and the other 478.

The Theta Deltas were pushed farther into the cellar by the Kappa Sigs.
484-434 and 476-397. S. A. E. turned in the highest match for the week when it conquered Sigma Chi, 517-477 and 561-475. Babe White, of the Sig Alphas rolled the highest game in League 2, when he spilled the pins to the tune of 153.

This week T. U. O. met Phi Sigma Kappa on Monday, and Sigma Nu encountered S. P. E. last night. Tomorrow evening Kappa Alpha and Sig Phi Eph tie up, as do Sigma Nu and Phi Sigma Kappa. League 2's first matches of the week will see the Theta Deltas against the S. A. E.'s, and Acacia meeting Kappa Sigma.

Next Week's Tilts

Both leagues conclude their series
Saturday evening, when Sigma Nu rolls T. U. O. at the same time that Phi Sigma Kappa takes on S. P. E. in League 1. Games for League 2 on that evening include battles between Acacia and Sigma Chi and between the Kappa Sigs and S. A. E.

Matches will, in every case, be held at the Coliseum, and will start at 8 p. m.

Standing of teams in both leagues
is as follows:

League 1
	W.	L.	Pct.
Sigma Phi Epsilon	1	0	1000
Phi Sigma Kappa	1	0	1000
Sigma Nu	1	0	1000
Theta Upsilon Omega	1	1	500
Kappa Alpha	0	3	000

League 2
	W.	L.	Pct.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	2	0	1000
Kappa Sigma	2	0	1000
Acacia	1	1	500
Sigma Chi	1	2	333
Theta Delta Chi	0	3	000

G. W. U. PLANS PUBLIC AFFAIRS CONFERENCE

Government Officials to Speak at Meetings Here April 19-20; Colleges Will Send Delegates

In order to promote a clear understanding of the policies and activities of various branches of the Federal Government and to make available to members of College and University faculties the funds of information possessed by the various government departments, George Washington University is arranging a Conference on Public Administration, to be held here April 19 and 20.

The conference will be addressed
by Cabinet members, bureau chiefs, and specialists in various fields. Officials of the Department of State, Department of Commerce, Department of Agriculture and Treasury Department have expressed their pleasure in cooperating in this enterprise.

Three Daily Sessions

The topics to be discussed will be of interest to professors of Commerce, History, Commerce, Political Science and Sociology.

Three sessions will be held each session.

Invitations to send day delegates to the conference, with two addresses at the morning and afternoon sessions, and one at the evening conference, have been sent to Colleges and Universities throughout the United States.

G. W. Co-Ed Is Leader of Episcopal Group

Mildred V. Thomas is Appointed
Head of Women's Discussion
Group for Conference

Mildred Volandt Thomas, G. W.
student, has been appointed leader of the Women's Discussion Group of the coming Tri-Diocesan Conference, to be held in Baltimore, under the auspices of Johns Hopkins University and Goucher College, on February 25, 26, and 27. Rolston Lyon and Grace May McLean will attend the conference as official delegates from the George Washington Episcopal Club.

Representatives from colleges in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and the District will be present at the conference. College problems will be discussed, business meetings will be held, and prominent men will address the students.

Questions which the members of the local Episcopal Club wish to be brought before the conference will be formulated at the next meeting of the club, to be held on Thursday, February 24, in Corcoran Hall 17,
at 8 o'clock.
